Description

Series Small The machine center DS 300/70C is a little genius with enormous potential, because it combines all the benefits of the work that can be performed in a fixed piece and every stage of turning is extremely precise and safe thanks to the machining program at constant surface speed. The little genius for great results The high-speed spindle allows you to automatically load a tool changeable 135mm contour head with 30mm of stroke from the tool magazine: ideal for machining of small diameters at high rpm. The potential of the machine grows even more with the option of equipping angle heads.
